

User Guide: Argentina (+54 9 11)

Making calls:

• Local calls:

Dial the number as locals give them to you (the country code is not required).

Example: Calling 5123 4567 a local number while in Buenos Aires, you should dial 011 5123 4567

• International calls:

1. Enter the + sign on your keypad. (Usually by holding the 0 (zero) button down for 2 seconds - check your handset manual if different).

2. Dial the number including the country code

Example: Calling (302) 228 6399, a number in North America, dial +1 302 228 6399

Calling 7800 616952 a number in the UK, dial +44 7800 616952

Receiving calls:

1. People from the US must dial:

011 54-9-11-XXXX-XXXX

2. People from Argentina must dial:

from within Buenos Aires 15 XXXX-XXXX

from outside Buenos Aires 011 15 XXXX-XXXX

3. People from other countries must dial their international access code, then 54-9-11-XXXX-XXXX

Example:

from France 00 54-9-11-XXXX-XXXX

Voice Mail Retrieval:

Please note that all system prompts are in Spanish.

• To retrieve messages while in France.

Enter the Phonebook and select "Voicemail Argentina" and press the <Send Key>

Messages will play automatically, starting with the most recent message first. Press <1> to listen to your first message, <2> to store and <3> to delete.

Note: the minutes you spend retrieving your messages while in Argentina are billed as national phone calls.

• To retrieve messages while outside of Argentina:

Enter the Phonebook and select "Voicemail Int" and press the <Send Key>.

Messages will play automatically, starting with the most recent message first. Press <1> to listen to your first message, <2> to store and <3> to delete.

Note: Using the above method to retrieve voicemail messages while roaming internationally will incur normal international roaming charges for a voice call.
