

User Guide: China (+86)

Making calls:

• Local calls:

Dial the number as locals give them to you (the country code is not required).

Example: Calling +86 10 64541100 a local number in Beijing, you should dial 0 10 64541100

• International calls:

1. Dial 1795100 + country code + area code + phone number

Example: Calling (302) 228 6399, a number in North America, dial 1795100 1 302 228 6399

Calling 067415 4940 a number in France, dial 1795100 33 67415 4940

Note: International calls made without the 1795100 access code will be charged at higher rates.

Receiving calls:

1. People from the US must dial:
011 86-XXX-XXXX-XXXX
2. People from China must dial XXX-XXXX-XXXX
3. People from other countries must dial their international access code, then 86-XXX-XXXX-XXXX

Example:

from France 00 86-XXX-XXXX-XXXX

from Singapore 001 86-XXX-XXXX-XXXX

Voice Mail Retrieval:

• To retrieve messages while in China.

Enter the Phonebook and select "Voicemail China" and press the <Send Key>
Messages will play automatically, starting with the most recent message first.

Note: the minutes you spend retrieving your messages while in China are billed as national phone calls.

• To retrieve messages while outside of China:

Enter the Phonebook and select "Voicemail Int" and press the <Send Key>.
Messages will play automatically, starting with the most recent message first.

Note: Using the above method to retrieve voicemail messages while roaming internationally will incur normal international roaming charges for a voice call.
